Frequently Asked Questions

Why am I receiving this Notice of Internet Availability?

The Securities and Exchange Commission (“SEC”) permits companies to send the enclosed “Notice” instead of a full printed set of proxy materials. The Notice provides instructions on how to view your company’s proxy materials, vote online and request a full set of printed materials by mail.

There are several advantages to your company sending a Notice instead of a full set of materials, including lowering your company’s costs and reducing the environmental impact from printing and mailing full sets of proxy materials.

How do I view the proxy materials online?

Go to www.proxyvote.com and enter your control number to get started. Your control number can be found on the enclosed Notice.

What if I prefer to receive a paper copy of the proxy materials?

You can easily request a paper copy which will be mailed to you at no cost. Instructions on how to do so can be found in the Get Informed Before You Vote section of the Notice

Can I receive proxy materials for future meetings by e-mail rather than receive a Notice?

Yes you can. Go to www.proxyvote.com and make your choice in the Delivery Settings section.

For more information about the SEC’s Notice and Access Proxy Rules please visit: www.sec.gov/spotlight/proxymatters/e-proxy.shtml

Dear shareholder,

Your vote is very important!

Over the past few weeks, you should have received proxy materials for the Blue Owl Technology Finance Corp. We also want to advise you that the proxy materials received by certain shareholders could have included (i) if received by mail, a proxy statement with multiple voting ballots, or (ii) if received by e-mail, multiple emails at or around the same time. This is not an error; you should vote each and every voting ballot or click in the hyperlink for voting within each and every e-mail received in order to vote all of your shares. If you continue to receive additional mailings or e-mails from OTF requesting your vote, you have unfortunately not voted all of your shares.

The OTF Board of Directors unanimously recommends that OTF shareholders vote FOR the proposals described in the proxy statement.

You can vote online by inputting the below control number(s) and any other control numbers you may have received at www.proxyvote.com.
